AUSTIN
STATION

Mr. Francis M. Arnold,
125 Pearson St.,
Chicago.

Dear Mr. Arnold

Miss Woodson tells me that you saved the day today,
and also gave the girls
some sound doctrine
which was much needed.
Please add this favour to the long list I already owe
you. I am sending you under separate cover a copy of my "St George". It is not at all satisfactory. But I thought you might help find out what was the matter with it. I am going to dedicate the book to Jean.

But don't let her know it
I want to surprise her.

I have begun on "St. Francis"
also on my introduction
Ever gratefully Yours

Elizabeth Harrison.

Do not imagine that I expect you to reinterpret
each story into music.
I will get this out and
"Some day" we will get a book of "Music Stories"
out together.
