

300 NORTH WALLER AVE,
AUSTIN STATION
CHICAGO, ILL.

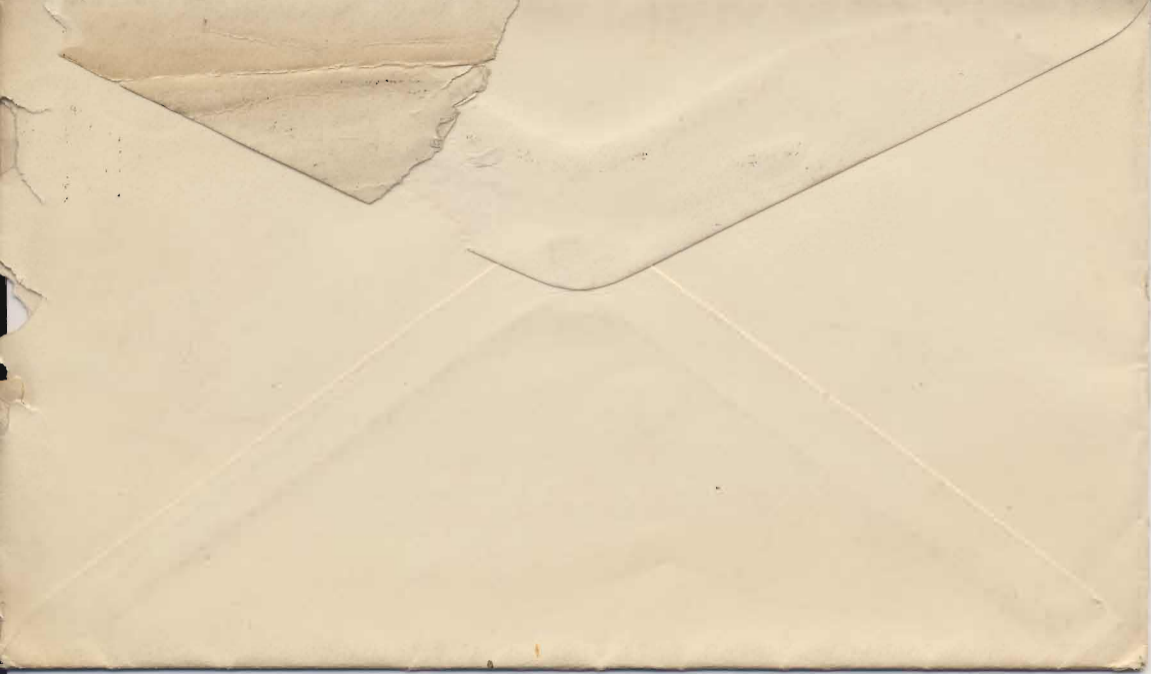

9

AUSTIN
STATION

Mr. Francis M. Arnold.
125 Pearson St.
Chicago -

Friday Evening.

Jan 4, 1908

Dear Ludwig.

I am hoping that you are much better, and that our precious one is out of danger. The doctor thought you were both on the up grade.

When I saw him. Of course I shall inquire each day, and come to see you both as soon as Jean feels willing - I mean feels that all danger of "catching the germ" is over. I am sending you this week's program. It was a great concert!

When the last high notes of the Death and Transfiguration "were ended. There was a perceptible pause in the usual rustle and stir of the audience getting ready to step down into the every day world. Mr. Stock turned and left the stage without any acknowledgment.

to send our love over again today.

of the belated applause. I wondered if his soul was with his Master's?
"whose" transfiguration" he had just glorified. I think I never heard the composition so solemnly and significantly rendered. I am hoping to be able to hear it again tomorrow (Saturday night)
I would like to have that grand triumph over death so engraved upon my heart that I could never think of the terror of the one without thinking of the victory the other. I seemed to see the angels as they welcomed the one - more - soul. I wonder if Theodore Thomas hear this music in the great beyond?
With love to you both. As ever your friend. E. H.

Miss Worsfold is better.
Miss Worsfold is better.
I have promised to print the young woman's paper the young woman's the same. I had feared